LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 19.—Mrs. F. K. Hunt, the venerable president of the Wemen's Anti-Breckinridge Association of Lexington, has received a letter from Miss Mary Desha, sister-in-law of Colonel Breckinridge, now residing in Washington, from which the following extract is taken: "I will probably never see you again on this earth, and I want to tell you how much I thank you for what you have done in defeating the man who has disgraced the Ashland district. You at home can hardly realize how we have felt here. There was universal rejoicing this morning when the

FOUGHT WITH KNIVES. Two Georgians Carve Each Other After Visiting a "Blind Tiger."

DUBLIN, Ga., Sept. 19 .- Robert Clemens and James Pullen fought a duel to the death with knives near Blackville, Ga. A quarrel, begun at a "blind tiger," was renewed on the way home by Pullen who, getting behind Clemens, drove his knife into the latter's neck. Though faint from the loss of blood, Clemens drew his knife and slashing began in earnest. After cutboth fell in the grass in a dying condition.

REUNIONS

TWENTY-SIXTH AT SHARPSVILLE AND THE OLD TENTH AT LEBANON.

Gatherings at Columbus, Madison and Other Places-Indiana Block Coal People Kicking.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TIPTON, Ind., Sept. 19 .- The annual reunion of the Twenty-sixth Regiment, Indiana volunteers, was held at Sharpsville yesterday. It was the most enthusiastic meeting the regiment ever held. There were sixty members present, more than three hundred old soldiers and a thousand visitors. A free dinner was served by the Woman's Relief Corps. Speeches were made by Hon. Dan Waugh, Capt. Milton Garrigus and J. F. Hanly. At the camp fire speeches were made by Dr. D. P. Rubush, H. C. Adams, Colonel Long and others. The next reunion will be held at Indianapolis. Officers elected for the ensuing year are: J. P. Johnson, Sharpsville, president; William G. Thompson, Indianapolis, vice president; G. G. Long, Indianapolis, secretary.

Veterans at Columbus. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., Sept. 19.-This city has been crowded with old soldiers to-day to attend the reunion of the Twenty-second and the Sixty-seventh regiments. Mayor W. J. Beck delivered an address of welcome to the Twenty-second Indiana Regiment in the headquarters of the Lincoln League, and Judge Francis T. Hord in the court room welcomed the survivors of the Sixty-seventh. The attendance at both camp-fires to-night was large. At the Sixty-seventh speeches were made by Prof. Andy Graham, of the Orphans' Home, and also by Rev. B. M. Cooper. Officers for this regiment for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Rev. B. M. Cooper: secretary and treasurer, John N. Maring; assistant secretary, William A. Abbett. The next meeting place will be at "Silver Lake," a small grove between Louisville and New Albany, during the time of the national encampment. It was at that place that Governor Morton met this regiment and took it to Indianapolis when it was returning from the South.

Oldest Veteran in the State. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 19 .- W. T. Merrell, of this city, while on a business trip to Ripley county, this week, ran across an old comrade he had not seen since 1863, when both were members of Company A, Fiftyfifth Indiana Volunteer Infantry. The man was John Serber, ninety-six years old, and he draws pensions from two wars. He fought with General Jackson at New Orleans. At the close of the civil war Serber was terribly mangled in a railway wreck. Serber, with a wife to whom he was married two years ago, lives on a little farm in the southwest part of Ripley county, near New Carrollton. He is supposed to be the oldest living veteran in Indiana.

The Old Tenth. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LEBANON, Ind., Sept. 19 .- To-day was the occasion for the reunion of the old Tenth Indiana boys, the heroes of Chickamauga. Blue suits and badges could be seen in large numbers. Few regiments saw harder service than the boys of the old Tenth. To-night General Manson addressed the soldiers and presented the old Tenth a flag which was taken in a fight at Mills's Springs by Company F, of that regiment, Reunion of the Eighty-Second. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MADISON, Ind., Sept. 19.-Colonel Morton C. Hunter and sixty survivors of the Eighty-second Indiana Infantry held a reunion to-day and a camp-fire to-night at the City Hall. RUINED BY FREIGHTS. Indiana Block Coal Men May Have to Close All Their Mines.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZII. Sept. 19.-The situation in the block coal field here is very critical, and the prospects are favorable for the closing down of the block mines for an indefinite period. The operators are very much dissatisfied and say they are losing money. The discrimination made in the transportation of block and bituminous coal to Chicago by the C. & E. I. is one of the main features of complaint. This road charges $1.10% per ton for block coal to Chicago, while the charge on bituminous coal from Coal Bluff, only a few miles north, is only 72½ cents. Taking in consideration that mining of block coal costs more per ton, the operators say it is impossible for them to compete. A committee of block coal operators called on the C. & E. I. officials yesterday and insisted on an equalization of price. What success they made is unknown. It is further claimed that the use of bituminous coal by manufacturing establishments and railroads is much greater than it was some years ago. The operators further state that the Pittsburg and Ohio coal is having a greater demand on account of the producers being able to sell it at a cheaper rate, as the freight is not so great. The mining scale is cheaper. The outlook for a large demand for block coal this winter is not very promising. The C. & E. I. officials claim that the discrimination in the freight rate of the bituminous and block coal is necessary to give the former a market, as its selling price is less. It is believed that the C. & will make some reduction, but the operators say nothing will suffice unless it is on a parity with bituminous coal. The Chicago & Southeastern (old Midland), it is claimed, has been consulted regarding rates, and an effort will be made to shift the entire block coal trade to this road unless the C. & E. I. makes the required

MEDIUM WARDELL ARRESTED. An Echo of the Spirit "Fake" Exposure at Bluffton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 19 .- The publication Sunday in the Journal, giving an account of the exposure of H. R. Wardell, claiming to be a spirit medium, created much talk here. Tuesday Wardell appeared in a card denying the truth of the printed account of the expose, and charging that the report was given out by evil-disposed persons for the purpose of injuring or black-mailing him. This afternoon affairs assumed a new phase when Sheriff Hoffman and W. L. Royse, of Bluffton, arrived here with a warrant for Wardell, charging him with having obtained money under false pretenses. The arrest grew out of the exposure made at Bluffton and the publication of his card in the Lafayette papers. War-dell was arrested by the sheriff of this county on a telegram from Wells county, and was locked up. Sheriff Hoffman expects to leave for Bluffton on the 1 a. m. train, taking Wardell with him.

Five Years for a Bigamist. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TIPTON, Ind., Sept. 19 .- "Jack" Stinson, the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bigamy by a woman of Urbana, O., was brought before Judge Kirkpatrick vesterday, where he pleaded not guilty, Seven witnesses testified as to his identity and that he was the husband of the Urbana woman. Stinson offered no evidence in defense, but his attorney asked for mercy when the jury took the case. In a few minutes it returned a verdict for five years. A few hours before the trial Stinson swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid that was used to disinfect the jail, but the quantity was too small to cause serious results. Both wives and numerous guests at both weddings were present in court. Stinson, who made no defense, took a dose of mor phine at the commencement of the trial. but was saved and hustled into the court

Thorntown Society Vindicated. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. THORNTOWN, Ind., Sept. 19 .- In the Journal of Sept. 18 a sensational article appears under the heading, "A Coldblooded Woman," which is of such a charter that the citizens of our town desire to disabuse the minds of the readers of the Journal. The writer of the article referred to is either ignorant of the surroundings or basely and falsely wishes to misrepre-sent our people and cast odium on the fown and its society. In the first place, the Colemans do not nor never did live in Thorn-town. Mrs. Coleman, some years after her separation from Mr. Coleman, purchased small, theap property here in which she lived a few months. Mr. Coleman was at one time a well-to-do farmer, and for several years he and his wife Cordelia lived a plain, plodding, almost reclusive farm life, in the most economical manner, in a domicile of very modest character, seemingly with no other aim or thought han to make money and grow rich in cattle and lands. If they ever claimed to be "society people" nobody in their neighbor-hood ever heard of it, and if "swell dinners" were ever any part of their enjoy-ment their most intimate friends and nearest relatives were not aware of it. Mrs. Coleman is almost entirely unknown in our town and community. Mr. Coleman is known only among our business men. Our citizens feel that the writer of an article so utterly base and false in its make-up deserves rebuke. It is believed by many that Mrs. Coleman is a demented woman and not responsible for what she does or has done. Mrs. Coleman Denies Everything. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LEBANON, Ind., Sept. 19 .- As the Coolman arson case progresses the interest grows more intense. William B. Coolman was called by the defense this morning and was asked what relation he bore to Ellen Ryder. Coolman admitted that she was his illegitimate child and as she had been discarded by her husband and cast out into the world alone he felt it his duty to go to her relief. He said that at first his wife did not object, but afterwards became jealous and accused him of improper conduct, which was untrue. The defendant was put on the stand and underwent a rigid cross-examination by Prose-cutor Dutch. She denied making any confession to anyone or saying that she would set fire to her ex-husband's property or that she committed any of the acts in the num-erous accusations made against her. The defense closed at noon and the State is now introducing its rebutal.

Threshing Over Old Evidence. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKFORT, Ind., Sept. 19 .- C. C. Shirley made the opening statement for the State in the Paris embezzlement case this morning. His effort was exceptionally strong, and consumed about two hours. Following it James Charles, the prosecuting witness, took the stand, relating his losses by the bank's failure. His testimony differed in no way from that given at the first trial. Following him came J. T. Scott, J. W. Reed and two or three others, who testified as to representations made by Gov. Chase relative to Paris's and Dwiggins's wealth. Cashier Waldron, of the defunct Greentown Bank, was on the stand several nours this evening, but the State elicited nothing new over his testimony at the former trial. Governor Chase arrived this evening, and will take the stand to-mor-

Heavy Flow of Swamp Gas. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLFAX, Ind., Sept. 19 .- No little excitement was caused here yesterday when the news flashed over the city that natural gas had been struck on Mrs. Parish's lot, where a driven well is being put down. The drill had reached the depth of 140 feet, when there came a rushing noise, and mud and water flew to the height of ten or twelve eet. A match was applied, and the gas burned some fifteen to eighteen feet high. It was necessary to remove the derrick, as it was in danger of being destroyed. There is some talk of organizing a stock com-pany for the purpose of boring into Trenton rock, as the citizens are confident that gas is here in paying quantities. Will Cut Wages 30 Per Cent. Special to the Indianapolis Journas. ELWOOD, Ind., Sept. 19.-The stockholders of the American tin-plate factory elected new officers and directors for the ensuing year to-day, as follows: Directors, W. B. Leeds, Mrs. W. B. Leeds, Dan G. Reid, James M. Overshiner and John F. Hasen. Officers: President, W. B. Leeds; vice president, John F. Hasen; treasurer, Dan G. Reid; secretary, L. H. Landon. The business situation was discussed and business per cent. will be made Oct. 1. It is under-stood the men will accept the reduction. Fatal Explosion at Redkey.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 19.-This evening, at Redkey, northeast of Muncie, a fourteeninch pipe in the pumping station at the Ohio and Indiana Natural-gas Company's works burst as the gas was first turned into it, making a test. George Edger, of the Redkey Bank, is reported fatally injured. A large piece of the pipe struck him and theu crashed through a building one hundred feet away. He was hurled forty feet and stripped of clothing. His wooden leg was twisted and broken and his face and body cut badly. Why Ada Jones Took Her Life. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SEYMOUR, Ind., Sept. 19 .- Miss Ada Jones, the suicide victim, as related in yesterday's Journal, died last night at 8 o'clock. Before her death she told the doctor she had fallen desperately in love with one of Seymour's young men and that he had refused to have anything to do with her and that she could not live without him. She had repeatedly sent for him to come and see her, but he refused, the last time being on her death bed. Her parents, who reside at Knightstown, Ind., are respectable people. They arrived here this

Last of the Goodman Gang. Special to the Indianapolis Journa. ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. -19.-Dick Goodman, the noted burglar of Summitville, who was so dangerously wounded by Deputy Sheriff Amos Coburn, while Goodman was robbing a store, hobbled into court to-day and, in a dramatic way, entered a plea of guilty. Goodman is much emaciated and is believed to be dying. An effort is being made to induce the court to rule with mer-cy in his behalf. With the disposal of Dick Goodman the famous band of outlaws that have infested the northern part of the county for years disappears.

His Death May Cause Another. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 19 .- This morning Herman Weihe, aged sixty, an old and respected German citizen, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Mr. Weihe took an old percussion-cap pistol and, stepping before a mirror, commit-ted the act. He had been out of work for a long time, and it preyed on his mind. He leaves a widow and four sons. His widow is in a critical condition, the result of the shock, and it is feared she will not recover, Father Murphy Selected. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 19 .- The calling of the Rt. Rev. Peter Joseph Hurth, D. D., C. S. C., to be Bishop of Dacca. India, necessitated naming some one to succeed him as president of St. Edward's College, at Austin, Tex., which position he had held for the past ten years. The choice fell on Very Rev. Edward Murphy, of Watertown, Wis., a man prominent in Catholic circles at that point. He was for-merly connected with the University of Notre Dame. At a 22 1-2 Per Cent. Cut.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 19.-The Victor window glass works, of this city, resume work to-morrow, giving employment to 125 skilled men who work at a reduction of 221/2 per cent. Factories No. 1 and No. 2 of the Anderson Window Glass Company will resume Monday, and the Union starts on the day following. With these factories operating all the industries in Anderson will be at work.

DePauw Has 300 the First Day. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Ind., Sept. 19.-DePauw University opened to-day with a large attendance. The outlook is unusually bright for a greater attendance than usual and the influx of new students is very marked. The enrollment on the opening day is over three hundred, which indicates a remarkable attendance. Most of the old students will not arrive until next week.

Indiana Deaths. BEDFORD, Ind., Sept. 19.-After lingering from a stroke of paralysis about nine-teen months, Mrs. I. N. Glover, aged forty years, suffered a second stroke yesterday. from which she died. The deceased's parents reside in Mitchell, where her remains were taken for interment to-day. Mr. Glover is cashier of the Stone City Bank of this city.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 19.—Samuel Russey, aged twenty-two, a Muncie fireman, died to-day of typhoid fever. Indiana Notes. The barn of Wesley Colescott, two miles west of Kokomo, burned yesterday.

The barn on the farm of Grant Gilmore, nine miles southwest of Farmland, was burned Tuesday night. Loss, $1,000. A five-year-old child was killed at North Manchester by falling from a separator and being crushed unde: the wheels.

THE CHAMPIONS BADLY BEATEN IN A HEAVY HITTING GAME.

They Start Away Like Winners, but Sharsig's Men Stick Pight to Them and Win Out Easily.

There was more shouting over yesterday's game than has been heard on the grounds this season. It was all occasioned by the lively manner in which the Indianapolis men scrambled out of a hole into which they had put themselves. The mistakes they made in the early portion of the game were all forgotten in the joy over the way they hit out the ball in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings. It is true they were materially aided by Sioux City's errors, but for all that they earned nearly again as many runs as their opponents, and were entitled to all they got. It was simply a case of sizing Cunningham up just at the right time. The visitors opened on Cross in a fashion that put almost everybody in the dumps. Besides, he was given some bad support at the start that added to the general depression, as well as to Sioux City's score. Both Cross and his support rallied in fine shape after the fourth inning, however, and the reaction was all the more hilarious. In the last five innings the coming champions made but three little singles and one run, which was a virtual gift from Gray, who let Stewart's hit to center get right through him. With the exception of this error Indianapolis played a sharp, clean fielding game after the third inning. On the contrary, both Cunningham and his support grew worse as the game progressed, and in the eighth inning went to pieces altogether, allowing the home team to pile up six runs. A queer feature of yesterday's contest was the fact that the number three predominated almost exclusively during the entire nine innings. It seemed for six innings as if neither club, when it did score, could get less than three runs, nor more than that number. In the seventh, however, the visitors were cut down to one, but Indianapolis went on working the "three" combination until the eighth, when they doubled up and made it

The most brilliant fielding of the afternoon was done by Hogriever, who spoiled several hits which looked good for two and three bases. One of them from Mills's bat, in the sixth, was a wonderful catch of the most vicious looking drive that has been seen on the ground for some time. Another from Henry's bat in the sixth was almost equally as good. Genins, the crack center fielder of the Western League, was away off yesterday and dropped three flies, though he also made one remarkable catch of a terrific drive by McCarthy in the fifth

Motz surprised his many admirers by stupid play, altogether unusual on his part It was a piece of base-running which, had the game gone wrong, would have been unpardonable. It happened in the seventh inning, when, with one out, Westlake on first and Motz on third, Roat hit to Holahan, who threw Westlake out at second Stewart tried to complete a double on Roat, but the latter beat the ball to first. Motz supposing that it was a double play, and that the side was retired, walked in from third and was promptly thrown out at the plate. He could easily have scored had he run in. There was a howl of dismay at this piece of apparent stupidity, and many of the "rooters" in the grand stand threw up their hands and lost heart altogether. Motz, in a measure, retrieved his blunder, however, in the following inning, by knockbasis under new tariff law outlined. A reduction in wages in the pot mill of 20 to 30 ng out a home run and sending in two nen ahead of him. Another man who distinguished himself in the wrong way yesterday was Henry, who coached Cross to second in the third inning when there was no show whatever for him to make the base. Gray was coached in from third in like manner, in the sixth inning, and easily caught at the plate. Henry, however, was not responsible for all the bad coaching done yesterday. Sloux City certainly had an elegant opportunity to win a game, but failed to take advantage of it and, in addition, ran up against some unusually hard hitting.

A double, Camp's single and Genins's triple, with a long fly earned three runs for Sioux City in the opening inning. In-dianapolis drew a blank, and when, through Cunningham's triple, Roat's fumble and Camp being hit by a pitched ball, with a sacrince and two singles, the Sioux City score ran up to six there was dismay among the spectators. However, in the last of the second, Mills's base on balls, singles by Westlake and Roat, two sacrifice hits and McCarthy's single, gave Indianapolis three, and put new life in the bleachers. Sioux City promptly added three in the third on singles by O'Rourke and Genins, errors by Cross and Motz, and a base on balls. Indianapolis stuck to them like a burr, however, a base on balls and four singles yielding three runs. In the fourth Sloux City kept it up and added three more on a base on balls, two singles and a triple. Sharsig's men followed them right along, three singles, a base on balls and a long fly yielding three runs. Then both teams drew blanks for an inning and Indianapolis tied the score in the sixth amidst tremendous enthusiasm. This was done by Genins's muff of Gray's hard fly, singles by Westlake and Shields, and Roat's triple. In the seventh Stewart hit to center and made the circuit when Gray let the ball get through him. This was Sloux City's expiring effort. In the last half Indianapolis went in to win the game, and, after Hola-han had dropped McCarthy's fly, Henry, Gray and Westlake all hit safe, Motz having reached first on balls, and three runs resulted. They clinched their victory in the eighth with six runs, made on two muffs Genins, a fumble by Stewart, doubles by McCarthy and Henry and a home run by Motz to that favorite spot of his in Motz to that favorite spot of his in right center. This was an inning of almost continuous shouting. In the last two in-nings the visitors could do nothing with Cross and the game ended with Indianapolis far in the lead. One thousand people saw the slugging. Score:

Sioux City Again To-Day. The baseball season is rapidly drawing to a close. So far as is known, there will be but five more games here. Sioux City will play again to-day and to-morrow, and then Milwaukee comes for the final series, beginning on Saturday. Originally three games were scheduled for the Milwaukee series here, but one of them was played off earlier in the season. That leaves but two —Saturday and Monday—but the clubs are scheduled to play in Milwaukee next Sunday, and it is probable that the game will be transferred to this city to save the expense of the trip there and back. If so there will either be two games on Monday or the additional one on Tuesday. Phillips will be in the box for the Indianapolis team this afternoon, and probably Killeen for Sioux City. The game will be called at 3:30 p. m., and ladies will be admitted free. Baseball Notes. Manager Barnie, of Louisville, left yesterlay for home. He thinks well of Roat. whose work of late has been right up to Fred Schaub writes the Journal that he olic convention, which has been in session with some corroborating affidavits as the here for the past few days, adjourned this afternoon to meet in Albany, N. Y., next year. The resolutions adopted to-day hail with joy the establishment of a papal delegate in the United States as a new proof of the paternal love and solicitude of our Holy Father for this country, and especially for the Catholic Church under the stars and stripes. An expression of thanks to Monsignor Satolli for his sympathizing and encouraging letter sent to the convention is also embodied in the resolutions. "We consider the temporal sovereignty of the church indispensable for the free govern-ment of the free church," is another clause in the resolutions, which also declare that the social question cannot be solved with-out "the re-establishment of the society of Christ." The Pope's encyclical on the condition of workingmen is approved in strong

The resolutions continue: "As free American citizens we claim the right for parents to choose their own schools and teachers. As Catholics we claim the right to establish and govern our parochial schools." PURIFYING CHICAGO.

Civic Federation Breaking Up Both Swell and Low Gambling Resorts.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 .- John Condon's gambling house at No. 14 Quincy street, reported to be the "swellest resort in the city," was raided to-day by detectives employed by the Civic Federation, the citizens' organization which has been making descents on Varnell's, "The House of David," and other equally celebrated gambling places. Condon's furniture was carried away and not recovered, notwithstanding stout physical and legal resistance on the part of the employes. The aid of the courts of record has been invoked by the federation, affidavits being laid before Judge Brentano to-day charging that rosecutions cannot be successfully made before justices of the peace. This amounts practically to a declaration that all the justices in the city are corrupt.

AN INCIDENT OF THE MEETING OF INDIANAPOLIS PRESBYTERY.

Spirited Discussion of Charges Brought by Rev. Z. T. Sweeney Against Rev. F. W. Fraser.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. AVON, Ind., Sept. 19 .- Yesterday there was quite a little stir created in the Indiana Presbytery meeting at White Lick Church, when the stated clerk informed that body that he had received a communication from Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, pastor of the Christian Church of Columbus, containing charges reflecting upon one of the members of the presbytery, Rev. F. W. Frazer.

A motion was made to refer it to the judiciary committee. This was discussed at some length. Some favored the motion on the ground that it had come up in a regular way and should receive respectful attention, as Mr. Sweeny was well known as a man of culture, a Christian gentleman and not a person likely to present an improper paper to the body. Others contended that Mr. Sweeney was not a Presbyterian, and the body should not entertain charges from any one but a member of the Presbyterian Church. An amendment was finally offered to return the communication to Mr. Sweeney without considering it. Mr. Frazer advocated the amendment. After some discussion the amendment was declared carried. This decision creating some stir, the moderator called for a standing vote, which justified his former decision. Mr. Frazer voted for

The Journal representative secured a copy of Mr. Sweeney's letter, which is as

"To the Indianapolis Presbytery:
"Brethren-I desire to submit to you the following statement. I have been pastor of the Christian Church in this city, a brief exception or two, since 1871; have built it up from 186 members to over 1,200. During all these years my personal rela-tions with my ministerial colleagues have been highly congenial and fraternal, most of them to-day being numbered among my warmest personal friends. "On July 30, 1893, Fenwick W. Fraser, whom I had hitherto esteemed as a personal friend and Christian gentleman, to my great surprise and regret, and without any warning, published the following card in the Daily Times of this city over his own signature about myself: 'But I may yet have to give to the public facts which will reflect no credit on him as a friend and add nothing to his lustre as a Christian gentleman.'

"The same evening I read the notice to my congregation of over 1,000 persons and demanded the 'facts.' I went next day to Mr. H. M. Holmes, an elder of the Presbyterian Church, with whom Rev. Fraser boarded, and demanded that Mr. Fraser produce the 'facts.' Over my protest he left on a vacation of nearly two months leaving his foul insinuation to breed suspicion against myself to the extent of "Returning, he threw the responsibility ipon a well-known liar, who had received his notice of dismissal from the officers of my congregation-largely for falsity-before e went to Mr. Fraser with the base story, I have, moreover, compelled Mr. Fraser to prove his own witness a liar in the public prints of this city, and have proven by a reliable gentleman on oath that his witness boasted that he had come to an understanding with Rev. Fraser, and they intended to down Z. T. Sweeney in Colum-

"I have called upon Mr. Fraser on more than one occasion to meet me in a frater-nal investigation of his charge, only to be met by haughty denial and insulting insinuations. I have repeatedly demanded that he join me in a mutually chosen tribunal and submit his charge and sustain it or else withdraw it. I have offered, if he will do so, to prove his witness to be a liar; that he knew his witness was a liar when he used him, and also to prove Mr. Fraser a liar as well. I have offered to show that his witness's statement, on which he solely relies, bears a lie on its face. I have of fered to pay his witness's fare from Vir-ginia and return if he will bring him back and have him swear to the truth of his statement in open court. I have offered to proceed against his witness for perjury the moment he does the above. I have offred to proceed against Mr. Fraser for perjury the moment he will swear in open court to what he has published in the newspapers and written to me. In all the above he refuses to meet me, and has warned me that I am in danger of personal injury from him unless I take care. 'If Mr. Fraser were the man he should be he will at once demand a trial and ex-onerate himself from the above charges, but mark my words, he will not do so. If he denies any of the above allegations NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The German Cath- to submit the correspondence between us allegations of this letter. "In conclusion I leave the matter with you. I have lived too long without a church trial to force myself into one now. I only ask of Mr. Fraser to prove his statement by submitting facts or withdraw his base insinuation. If your presbytery think this an unreasonable demand I shall seek no other method of reconciliation. "If your presbytery can suggest anything for me to do that I have not already done, to honorably and Christlanly adjust this matter I will thank you to point it out. The statements of this letter are either true or false. If true, I claim the exoneration you alone can give. If false, it will be an easy matter for Mr. Fraser to show t. If you wish to verify anything which Mr. Fraser may deny by an appeal to our correspondence it is at your disposal. "Sincerely and fraternally, "Z. T. SWEENEY,
